Hello ji,

I have seen this and also seen the video. It is not fair that someone edit/cut the video to sound that he is speaking against Guru Ji. I have heard the full Video, the message is completely different.

Who ever edited the video to give wrong message and mislead Akaal Tkahat Sahib must be shame of him or her actions. That person should be shame of calling himself a Sikh, not even a human being.

Also, regarding the Dasam Granth, lets all sit to gather and read it as a team (Sangat) and then lets individual decide for them selves. I remember the meeting with Mr. Gurcharan Singh Lamba ji in Toronto, where he admits himself that he has not read Dasam Granth completely. It is on the Video...then, if he has not read it then why are we creating all this fuss.

I asked the question to all of you, have you read it and understood it or you are just following someone who has an different agenda behind it. The agenda is to connect Sikhism and Guru ji's to the mythological stories of Hinduism. As mention in the "Bachetaar" Natak that Guru Nanak Ji and other Guru Sahabans were from the "Kul" of of Ram's sons and Guru ji came to this world not because Akal Purkh send him, it is just because one hindu tribe made a promise to other based on some kingdom sharing... what a tragedy that Sikhs who are blindly promoting it don't even understand the fundamental message of Guru Granth Sahib ji and also the damage they are doing to Sikh Philosophy (core values of Sikhism) by promoting Dasam Granth on the indications of RSS and people like Lamba and others like him with the same mission.

So, I openly challenge all of you on this mail, lets meet in person everyday on Sunday for 1-2 to read Dasam Granth as Sanget and discuss and then decide it for ourselves if this is Guru ji's Bani or not. I am neutral on this, even i have read most of it....i am open minded and looking forward that you guys will do what a Sikh suppose to do --. read--> discuss --> follow.....not just follow because some else tell you to.

Subject: Re: [IHRO] Akaal Takhat Sahib Hukamnama Against Ragi Darshan Singh..

Veer ji,

That is understood. However, one has the right to change his or her mind if they choose too. For example, i was following and believing many bad practices until i start reading Guru Bani (Shri Guru Granth Shaib Ji) by my self. Now, i have the right and obligation to speak against those practices because Guru has awakened me.

So, I don't find any reason, if you learnt today, that you were wrong yesterday. Then go head and accept it and announce it.

Veer Ji, either Professor Dharshan Singh ji or any other personalities are not the core issue. People come and go.. However, the damage is being done to Guru's philosophy (message of Truth) by promoting Dasam Granth.. as parallel philosophy to our Pita (Shri Guru Granth Sahib ji). That is the danger...

These people like Lamba and many are doing the job of RSS and hindu fundamentalism.. Hindus have done this to all other religion.. Buddhism, Jainism, Islam etc.. they are trying to prove and put into our mind that Sikhs are part of Hindu and they are using Dasam Granth as the vehicle for it.

All, i am saying is that lets sit to gather and read it... Veer Ji, we all have the obligation to work for this cause (doesn't matter who you are and how you look, in Guru's eye we are his students (children), and he loves us nothing less than that). to save Guru's message. so we can keep it pure and understand ourselves and spread to the man kind.

Even Hindu themselves don't believe in these mythology anymore and we are promoting it and worshiping it...

So, lets come to gather and resolve this issue for the sake of our future generation. Guru (Akal Punkah) has given every individual human being to read and discuss then follow the truth by them selves. We don't need any permission from any one in this matter. Lets gets to gather at the grass root as Sikh have done it from ages.. and expose everyone. .who ever it is... I don't care about personates.. I loyalty is with Shri Guru Granth Sahib ji and its message, and that is the Hukam of Guru also.

Ek Panth (one path) --> Guru Granth Shaib Ji -----> nothing less and nothing more... we can read all other things for knowledge and use Guru Granth Sahib as our comparisons to see if it fits with Guru's message or not. We don't need Mr. Lamba or Prof Dharsahan Singh for that.. our Guru has given us wisdom Guru is with us to guide us.

I really appreciate your email.

Thank you so much.
